CUPID BUSY.

Many Hearts in Yale Pierced by His Irresistible Arrows.

The nuptial knot is tied and Miss Ava Warner has met her fate in the personage of E. G. Downer, of Oakley. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's mother on Second street last Wednesday evening by the Rev. Rowe. Miss Lizzie Cady playing the wedding march. A large number of friends and relatives were present and the bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. Miss Jessie Downer, sister of the groom, supported the bride, while Elmer Damoth, of West Branch, acted as best man. After a sumptuous dinner the happy couple left on the evening train for a short trip before going to their home in Oakley where Mr. Downer handles hardware. Although the bride has not lived among us very long she has made many warm friends here and especially among the young people of the M. E. church where she has been an active worker. The Expressor joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

A very pleasant afternoon wedding took place Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 3:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moore at which the charming daughter of the home, Miss Emma Moore, became Mrs. Henry Welch. Elder D. McCall performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends. The bridal party entered the parlor as the notes of the wedding march were played by Miss Nellie Depeel. The rooms were handsomely decorated with flowers. A wedding supper was served which one hundred guests thoroughly enjoyed. The presents were many and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Welch left the same evening for a short wedding tour and on their return will make Yale their home.

Walter Ciesseman and Sarah Broadway, both of this township, were united in marriage yesterday at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. Carpenter, of Riley Centre, tied the nuptial knot. May their matrimonial bark sail smoothly down the troubled stream of life.

Chas. Scusser and Selma Hallmann, two of Greenwood's popular young people, were yesterday made one by a marriage ceremony which was performed in the presence of a number of friends at the home of the bride's parents.

Entertainment Course.

After considerable delay the committee in charge of the High School course of Entertainments has been able to secure the following excellent attractions this winter:

Thomas McClary, of Minneapolis, Dec. 14, a lecturer.
The Bliss Concert Company—Jan. 18.
J. Williams Macy—Feb. 14, humorist and singer.

Rev. Morgan Wood, of Detroit—Feb. 14, a lecturer.
Herbert A. Sprague—March 18, a monologue entertainer.

Two lecturers, two entertainers and one concert. The fare for only one dollar. Season tickets may be procured at either Holden's or Lennon's drug store. Nearly enough tickets have been sold to meet the expense and the soliciting committee are confident that many who have not yet purchased tickets will do so, now the course is assured. The surplus will go into the school. The entertainments have been carefully selected and are first-class. They are instructive—help to advertise the town and prevent harmful entertainments. You can't afford to miss them.

Season tickets will be delivered to subscribers this week and next.

How To Prevent Croup.

Some reading that will prove interesting to young mothers. How to guard against the disease.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Will Lennon, druggist.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Kepine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., Chief, says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experienced with many others, but never got the true Remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other Remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other Remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good because this Remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at Grant Holden's drug store.

CASH

Or Its Equivalent.

After having given the credit business a fair trial, I find I have accumulated a great number of small accounts and balances which, though of themselves are very small and insignificant, but when all footed up amount to a very large sum, and after counting the cost of collecting these small accounts and the final loss of a great many, I have concluded to adopt the strictly cash system on and after Nov. 1st, and all accounts must be closed up by that time.
